HOST SUSAN ROSS
SPEAKER CRYSTAL MARTIN

Encourager, Connector Sourdough Baker, Gigi to 6, Wife to 1 terrific man,
Women and Girls
advocate

God has deposited a unique skill set in each person for His purposes.
It is to be put to use in ministry and service to others. This session is designed just for you - a safe place to celebrate the joys of ministry and embrace its challenges
with the support of the strong community of NCAG Female Ministers.

1st session - Room 213

CREATED FOR CARING
DANA SANTIAGO
*2ND SESSION*

Co-Lead Pastor, Sweet
Tea Lover, Therapeutic Gardener, DIYer at Heart, Old-fashioned Grandma

“Honor your father and mother” is a commandment that doesn’t expire when we reach adulthood. This vital principle brings challenges as we care for aging parents. Yet, being a caregiver can encompass other family members. Serving as a caregiver is a high and sacrificial calling. Dana will share ways to walk out this calling with compassion, purpose,
and joy.

2nd Session - Room 213

LEADING FROM YOUR GENIUS
KIM CATRON

Have you ever felt
drained and frustrated
by work, ministry, or even home life, but you can’t figure out why?
Learn how working in your geniuses can help
you approach your job,
ministry event, or household tasks in a way that brings you joy and gives you life.

Our identity is rooted in Christ. God uniquely designed us to create beauty and glorify Him.
Join us as we reflect on who we are in Christ
and from these impressions create a unique, personalized
watercolor painting.

"For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago." Ephesians 2:10
