SHANNON - SEPT 12

CRISTINA BONILLA

Cristina Bonilla is a wife, mother, blogger, preacher, psalmist, and ordained minister with a deep passion for Jesus Christ and the transformative power of the Gospel. She ministers with humility, compassion, and a desire to see lives healed, restored, and strengthened through a personal relationship with Him.

Committed to discipleship and spiritual growth, Cristina helps believers develop an enduring faith and walk confidently in their God-given identity and purpose. She will soon be serving alongside a new church plant in Raleigh, partnering in the work of reaching and equipping the local community.

Her mission is simple: to lead people to Jesus and inspire them to live in the fullness of His love, power, and purpose.
