DANA SANTIAGO

Dana Santiago has spent the last four decades living out her calling in full-time ministry. From spending 27 incredible years as a missionary in Spain to her current role pastoring a multicultural congregation at Evangel Church Durham alongside her husband, David, Dana's heart has always been for people.

Currently, she channels that energy into her true passion: directing the Evangel Kids Ministry. When she isn't ministering to the next generation, Dana is likely outdoors or enjoying quality time with her big, beautiful family—including her four adult children and ten awesome grandchildren.
